Listed are some of the literature and services that we are able to provide for you as a Veteran:

- Daily a quiet place for meditation, reflection, and prayer in the Chapel and Mosque
- Materials on how to cope with your illness from a spiritual point of view can be found in racks in the Chapel or at Veterans request brought to you by a Chaplain.

Supportive readings:

- on prayer
- on building your faith
- on finding peace of mind
- on increasing self-esteem
- on loss, death and dying

Religious Literature:

- Devotional
- Recovery Literature
- Inter-faith Scripture

Counseling services for the individual and families regarding:

- Grief Counseling
- Stress Counseling
- PTSD Counseling
- Addiction Counseling
- Spiritual Counseling

The Chaplains are at your service during your stay in this medical center.

Ministries include the following:

- Private devotions (Scripture and prayer)
- Talking about spiritual problems. If the problem affects the way you feel about life, it is a spiritual problem.
- Calling your clergy person (pastor, minister, rector, priest, rabbi, or imam), faith community or spiritual advisor.
- Consulting your doctor or other members of the medical center staff or faculty member.
- Let the Chaplains know directly or through the volunteer or ward personnel when you desire sacraments, ordinances or rites that your chaplains can provide.

Chaplain and Chapel services are available to Veterans, their families and the staff as determined by VA Policy
